The A. H. S. Newscast

By Peggy Ellen Cole

Hi, gang!

I guess everybody has settled down after the week-end and the eventful two days before. I hope that you enjoyed your free afternoon Thursday as much as I did. I know that quite a few boys went hunting. Did they kill anything? I think most of the girls went to Lynchburg to do some Christmas shopping. Let's hope they have some more teachers' meetings soon.

There was a full length movie shown in the auditorium on Friday afternoon. It was a football movie, about players at Stanford University. Quite a number of the students recognized one of the actors as being Marian Willis. He visited us homecoming and was recognized at the football game that night. This made the movie extremely interesting.

Mrs. Taylor's home room had the chapel program last Wednesday. They had as speaker the Rev. Wingfield, who gave an interesting talk.

The S. C. A. is sponsoring the Red Cross drive in school this year. It is through this organization that boys and girls our age, living in war-torn countries, learn what it is to have a happy Christmas. Try to put yourself in their shoes and think what a bleak Christmas it would be without anything to look forward to except cold and hung...r. If you will do this, I'm sure you will want to contribute. Just see your homeroom S. C. A. representative.

Oh what a happy day it was at school Tuesday. Why? Our basketball teams started their season with wins over Pamplin High School. The boys score was 40 - 31 and the girls was 28 - 18. This was a wonderful start considering the fact that they can only practice on mild days. Maybe one day we will have a gym and just think what we could do with that! We would have a place to take Physical Ed on bad days, a place to practice basketball, a place to have dances without having to move fifteen or twenty tables and chairs, and a place for community gatherings. I don't think it is going to be long before we are going to get that gym. We'll just have to be patient.

The Tri-Hi-Y meeting was held Monday morning in Mrs. Brown's room.The meeting was presided over by the vice-president, Lora Fleshman. We were sorry to hear that our president, Sylvia Burks, was ill. This is the first meeting she has missed since the club was organized last year. After devotion by Rebecca Babcock, there was a panel discussion on Boy, Girl Relationships.

Only ten more days 'til we will be out for Christmas! Is everybody as excited as I am? There are great plans for parties in all the clubs and so on rooms. All the artists in school are busy drawing pictures on blackboards and decorating rooms.

Everybody is talking about the big Christmas dance being given on December 28. The Vagabonds will furnish the music and admission will be fifty cents per person. The dance is being called The Cinderella Ball and in connection with the dance there is a popularity contest to select Cinderella. There are vars in all the stores and in the school rooms. Vote for your choice today. Decorations for the dance are going to look like a dream, so this is one event you won't want to miss.

I've got to stop now because I've a few packages to wrap. What's in them? Subscriptions to the A. H. S. annual. Why don't you buy one today?

Vera

Vera, Dec. 12.- The year is fast coming to a close. We should all stop and think: how have we spent it?

The guests in the home of T. C. Harvey Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Beasley and son, Benjamin.

Harry Jenkins has moved into his new home, formerly the old Jenkins home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey and girls and Mrs. Ida T. Morris visited Mrs. Allen O'Brien Sunday. She is so cheerful and seems to be getting along nicely.

The community was saddened by the tragic death of L. D. Ould. Our sympathy is extended the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reynolds and Merle and Cecil; Mrs. Leslie Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Carnefix Sunday night.

The relatives of Joel Jenkins have been called to Newport News on account of his extreme illness.

Eddie Carter is very ill in the hospital.

Colored Dots

A large crowd attended the first Men's Day program at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday evening at 3:00 o'clock. PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR

Richmond, Va., Dec. 12.- Below is a proclamation issued by Governor John S. Battle urging the citizens of Virginia to cooperate in preventing traffic deaths during the dangerous holiday season.

"This ...ime of year invariably sees a heavy toll of deaths and injuries and this December will also see the nation's one millionth traffic death unless drastic efforts are made ao postpone it.

"This millionth death will mark a tragic and disgraceful milestone in the nation's traffic history and will be all the more sorrowful coming at the height of a joyful season. I am sure we do not want the eyes of the nation on Virginia as a state which contributed heavily in hastening this tragic event.

"We must not have a repetition of last December, which saw 106 Virginia deaths, nor should we forget the many homes for which there was no cheer at Christmastime last year. I appeal to every citizen of the Commonwealth that he drive and walk with the utmost caution and consideration during the dangerous days ahead. May we all strive to postpone this millionth death and to keep the horror of death or injury from our homes during the holiday season."

SANTA STARTS ANNUAL N & W RIDE

Santa Claus rides the Norfolk and Western again next week.

The same buoyant old gentleman who surprised passengers and railroaders last year as he popped in and old of numerous trains will be back on another rigorous schedule. With a pack crammed with miniature stockings for young travelers and favors for adults, Santa begins his tour at Norfolk on Tuesday morning, December 17 when he embarks on the Powhatan Arrow.

Before he pulls off his boots the following Saturday night he will have ridden on at least 13 trains, visited several others in terminals and made quick appearances at stations all the way from Norfolk to Cincinnati and down the Bristol line. Wherever a train pauses Santa will be on the platform to greet anyone in sight.
